ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce the
HON. G. G. GILBERT, OF SHELBY COUNTY,
as a candidate for re-election to Congress from this, the Eighth district, subject to any regular action of the Democratic party.

The highest court in the United States has decided the Governor's contest case in favor of Mr. Beckham, and he is now the legal Governor of the State of Kentucky. Throughout this long and bitter struggle, the Democrats have been advocates of civil liberty and protection of human life and the absolute acquiescence to all law, right and justice. From the very beginning of the contest before the Legislature to the close of the legal battle in the courts, the Democrats have complied with each and every letter of the law, advocating its enforcement and respecting its mandates. Party strife should now cease; political slander should be stopped, and all should bow their heads in submission to the courts. Let each man go to work to build up rather than tear down, establish peace rather than discord. Immediately after the decision of the Supreme Court, a Kentucky officer went to Indianapolis, carrying with him a requisition from Gov. Beckham, a copy of the indictment charging Charley Finley with being accessory to the murder of William Goebel; and an affidavit of the Commonwealth's Attorney of the Franklin county district, stating that he believed from the evidence that Finley could be convicted of murder. Finley was arrested in the above city at 6.30 o'clock, Monday evening, and was taken immediately to the police station, where he was safely guarded until the officer could go to Gov. Mount and present his requisition for Finley that it might be honored by the Governor, but it was immediately turned down by the executive who failed to give any reason whatever for his action. Finley was indicted by the Grand Jury of Franklin county, composed of twelve sober, discreet householders of that county. The indictment was returned and filed in open court. It was found upon evidence which strongly connects Finley with the murder of William Goebel. Gov. Mount may refuse to recognize a requisition for the return of Finley, as there is no law to force him to do so. It is purely a matter of personal courtesy from one Governor to another; but the people of the proud States of Kentucky and Indiana, deep down in their hearts, will condemn the action of Gov. Mount in refusing to surrender Finley. Our people do not believe in a government by assassination, and neither will they vote for a party, or man or set of men who advocate such. If Finley is guilty, as we believe he is, let him come and stand the trial like the humblest citizen of the Commonwealth. Let justice be meted out to him; give him a fair and impartial trial, and should he come and show his innocence, let him go acquit. If guilty, let him be punished according to the degree of the offense he has committed.

JOHN L. POWERS was arrested for complicity in the Goebel assassination conspiracy early Tuesday morning while attempting to flee from the State. He sued out a writ of habeas corpus before County Judge Wyatt, at Barbourville, and presented a pardon signed by W. S. Taylor on March 10th. Judge Wyatt held the pardon good, as it was issued by "Governor" Taylor, and released Powers, although the Circuit Court, the Court of Appeals of Kentucky and the Supreme Court held that he was not "Governor." But what is the decision of such high tribunals when Wyatt, although a Judge, wants to oppose all law and the opinions of higher courts as well. When we think of the diabolical crime committed at Frankfort, the chasing of good law-abiding officials through the streets of the capital, the unlawful use of the militia; when we think of how Taylor and his cohorts disregarded all law, pardoned men before being arrested and assisted them in trying to make their escape, the pardoning of mountain hoboos for disorderly conduct when they were even ready to enter the plea of guilty; when we think of Caleb and John Powers and Davis being captured while in full flight, and Taylor and Finley whose guilty consciences made cowards of them both fled to the protecting wing of Indiana's Governor who is establishing a refuge for criminals, we rise to ask how any decent, law-abiding Republican of this or any other county can endorse such a course?

To Many Inquirers.—No; there is no provision for filling by election a vacancy in the office of Lieutenant Governor. Mr. Beckham is still Lieutenant Governor and will be Acting Governor until his successor is elected in November and installed in December. Should he not run for Governor, or run and be defeated, he would continue Lieutenant Governor until the end of the term; if elected Governor, (as he will be) the office of Lieutenant Governor will be vacated by such an election, and the presiding officer of the Senate (at present Senator Carter, of Anderson), will continue as acting Lieutenant Governor, at least until the next organization of the Senate.

WILLIAM S. TAYLOR.

Leading Louisville Republicans are mortified and disgusted at the course of W. S. Taylor in leaving Kentucky and taking refuge in Indiana. They do not hesitate to denounce his cowardly action, and say that had he been properly advised he would have remained at home. Instead of doing so he was easily persuaded by Charles E. Sapp to sneak over to Jeffersonville and take a train for Indianapolis a few minutes after hearing the news from Washington that he had no legal claims to the governorship. If, however, Taylor had taken Judge Bill Yost and several of his Brown advisers along with him and kept them in Indiana, old-line Republicans there would have considered it as some recompense.

It is understood ex-Gov. Bradley disapproves of the course of Taylor and advised against his fleeing like a fugitive from justice. The fact that Taylor remains in Indiana and declines to face the charges against him in Kentucky, if there are any formal charges in the way of indictments, places him in an unenviable position, and has lost him many friends in Louisville. Taylor is no longer a factor in the race for Governor, and has weakened himself greatly with his party by his actions on Monday and since that time. He promised to face his accusers, and now runs away, leaving the impression that he is guilty of the charges made against him that he was in the conspiracy to kill Gov. Goebel. His course has left him without a defender among the old-line Republicans in that city.

Ed. Dunn, of Danville, is visiting his father at this place this week.

Mrs. I. S. Burdett is visiting friends at Crab Orchard this week.

Our old friend W. G. Adams is still very low.

Mrs. J. W. Gilpin continues no better.

PIE HILL

Miss Mary Wilder, of Wellburg, has been the guest of Mrs. John McDowd for the past week. Her good and graceful manner, with her pleasant manner, has won her many friends during her stay.

Col. A. August has been here for some time looking after his coal interests.

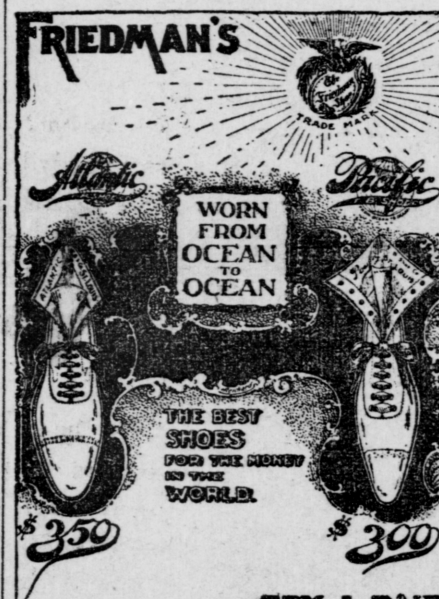

Jas Cox, Jr., and Miss Minnie Payne were quietly married on the 16th at Caloway, Rev. G. G. Ragan performing the ceremony. His many friends congratulate him and wish him success.

Pine Hill has grown very insignificant in the eyes of the Railroad Company. Now the daily fast mails have to be flagged for passengers wishing to get on here.

Lewis Metesser, of New Orleans, has been here looking over Col. August's coal property with a view to purchasing and putting up coke ovens. The only draw back is the lack of sufficient water to wash the coal and steam the boiler, for which purpose it requires $50,000 gallons per hour. Water does not trouble the mind of the average Kentuckian for he has a substitute in corn liquor and thus it is the water supply here, has remained undeveloped.

The mines have been drowned out for the last day or so, but the new pump they have just put in has dried it out and they resume operations to-day.

Joseph Prewitt is now holding the position of weigh boss for the Pine Hill Coal Company.

Last year when it was reported through the Signal that Andrew Hasty had caught a red rabbit, almost every one doubted the truthfulness of the story, but I suppose it will now have to be taken as correct, for last week Harry Jones' little girl caught three in the very same place where Hasty caught his. She has them at home taming them, and any one having enough curiosity to want to see for themselves can do so by going there.

THE ECLIPSE HERE.—Mt. Vernon will have a good view of the eclipse of the sun on the morning of next Monday, May 28th. The eclipse here will be nine-tenths total and will commence at about 6.34 and continue two hours and ten minutes. With the aid of smoked glasses a person can obtain an excellent view. Mr. Vernon is not in what is called the path of totality, and therefore will not strictly have a sight of the total eclipse. The path of totality extends from Norfolk, Va., to New Orleans, and all along this line there will be complete darkness for a brief period. In Mt. Vernon one section of the sun will always be in view. The last total eclipse visible here was in 1869. It has been about eleven years since the last eclipse of the sun in this country, and it will be eighteen years before there will be another. As is well known the eclipse is caused by the moon passing between the sun and the earth. The obscuration will be plainly visible in North and Central America and the northern portion of South America.

Don't fail to call on Mrs. S. W. Davis for photos. 33-3t

The horrid trusts almost caused a panic this week in local female circles, says the Bowling Green News. The ice cream soda water dealers formed a combination and most of them agreed in future to charge ten cents for that popular drink instead of five cents, as heretofore. The news spread rapidly and there was weeping and wailing among the women. One firm, however, wasn't game and backed out, breaking the combination and destroying the trust.

The latest name mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress in the Louisville district is Mr. William W. Thompson, Treasurer of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. He has always been a Democrat.

W. H. Collyer of Brodhead who has been a victim of consumption for years, and whom, it was thought through all the winter, both by those who visited him and by his physicians, could not last a very great while, but about April 1st, he moved to a house which he had built on a high sand knob in the western point of the county, and from the very first day he began to improve and now his physicians have great hopes of his entire recovery. Owing to the elevation and dryness of the hill, the physicians have great hopes in it being a fine place for weak lung people.

An Epidemic Whooping Cough.

CLIFFORD, Proprietor Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by Theo Wesley, Livingston.

Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demoniac enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by Theo Wesley.

We now have one of the finest, healthiest baby boys in the country. During confinement, she did not suffer one-tenth part the pain and distress that she did with her other child, because she took G.
